Quotes & Notes

- "I think that she will be okay in the final," reported trainer Tony O'Sullivan. "She has raced well all year, with no luck in the post positions. I think that she raced okay the other night; I thought that she might have been a little better. The biggest thing with her is that she has been a little aggressive her last few starts and we need to keep her calmer. She seems to be a little better. If she trots home the way she did in the other 2 finals this year, then she will be okay. A lot will depend on the trip that she gets. She is better with cover."
- "She just jogs and trains regularly. We have tried to swim her, but she is not a good swimmer. She gets turned out a lot; she likes to be outside, continued O'Sullivan. "We just try to keep her happy!"
- O'Sullivan has been in Canada for nine years and on his own for the last four. Previously he worked for Mark Harder and Ross Croghan. He started in the horse business as a groom after finishing school down under. He went to New Jersey, because "that is what all of the young guys did" and never went back. Susie's Magic won the Crown for O'Sullivan in 2006.

- Co-owners L&L DeVisser (Lee and Linda DeVisser), of Holland, MI, have campaigned the likes of Breeders Crown starters Jenna's Beach Boy (three-time Champion 1994, 1995, 1996), and She's A Great Lady (Champion 1995 and 1996), Lady Macbeach (Champion 2000 and 2001) and others. They rank fourth on the all-time list of money winners in the Breeders Crown.
- Tonight's She's A Great Lady Pace was named in honor of their champion filly and they won the fourth edition with Kikikatie.
- Lee DeVisser, a second-generation Norwegian, previously was a partner in Aspen Enterprises, which operated 14,000 mobile home sites. The DeVissers, who got started in harness racing in 1982 with $20,000-claimer Meadow Pizzazz, were voted by the U.S. Harness Writers Association as Owners of the Year in 1995. Lee DeVisser got involved in the sport because his parents were longtime fans and always wanted a racehorse.
- Jenna's Beach Boy, named for one of the DeVissers' granddaughters, was the 1996 Older Pacer of the Year at one time the race-mile world record of 1:47.3. For a one-week period in September 1996, he held world records on half-mile, five-eighths and mile tracks. His wins included the Breeders Crown and U.S. Pacing Championship.
- The DeVissers also owned Kikikatie, and shared ownership of Kadabra. They also saw their filly, Emma Hanover honored with the Dan Patch Award for best trotting mare in 2002.
- Other standouts for the DeVissers have included millionaire Three Olives, Dr Drew, For The Luva Moni, and Malabar Mist.
